A Journey into Hidden Ireland

Ireland is a land of many hidden treasures, from its ancient forests and ruined abbeys to its forgotten villages and forgotten stories. In Interstices at the Edge of the Pale, John Creedon takes readers on a journey to these hidden places, revealing their beauty and their secrets.

Creedon's journey begins in the Pale, the area around Dublin that was controlled by the English during the Middle Ages. He then travels beyond the Pale, into the untamed wilderness of Ireland. Along the way, he meets a cast of characters who share their stories of love, loss, and redemption.

Creedon's writing is lyrical and evocative, and his photographs are stunning. He captures the beauty of the Irish landscape, from its rolling hills to its rugged coastline. He also captures the spirit of the Irish people, their warmth, their humor, and their resilience.
